TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgement……………………………………………………………………iv

Chinese Abstract……………………………………………………………………vi

English Abstract……………………………………………………………………viii

Chapter

1. Introduction…………………………………………………………………… 1
   The Moor’s Last Sigh as a Post-Colonial Novel………………5
   Homi Bhabha’s Concept of Liminality…………………………………….14
   Rusdiean Narrative: History or His Story?…………………………22

2. A Hybridized Text: Dialectics of Identity and Authenticity………27
   An-Other Problem of Ambivalence……………………………………30
   Mother India and Feminizing Strategies………………………………39
   Filmic Representation as Post-Colonial Mirror……………………47

3. Post-Colonial Bricolage of Multiculturalism………………………53
   A Multicultural Superimposition: Spain and India………………58
   Eclectic Conflation of Pop Culture and High Art………………….68

4. Literary Policy/Politics: Narrating the Nation……………………76

5. Conclusion……………………………………………………………………87

Works Cited………………………………………………………………………95